

K-Love is important to my family because it is something we can listen to without fear of the content of the material. There is so much degradation on tv and other radio stations. It's comforting for myself and my community to know K-LOVE is there. They are publicly providing an arena that is uplifting to all families.